Premium practice worksheet

EVERY DAY OBEDIENCE - LESSON 01

Make learning clear before making it hard.

Use this worksheet to make training easier to understand for your dog: clear timing, fair expectations, and rewards that actually matter.

TRAINER NOTE

Most dogs do not need more pressure. They need clearer information and better timing.

1 What success looks like

By the end of this lesson, the owner can name the behavior they want, mark it clearly, reward it quickly, and keep the setup easy enough for the dog to succeed.

2 Practice plan

1

Name the behavior

Decide exactly what will earn reinforcement before the session starts.

2

Mark the moment

Use your marker the instant the dog makes the correct choice.

3

Reward quickly

Deliver the treat while the dog still understands what they did.

4

End clean

Stop before the dog gets tired, frustrated, or checked out.

6 Common mistakes and quick fixes

Common mistakes

- Rewarding too late.
- Practicing around distractions too soon.
- Repeating cues when the dog is confused.
- Training until the dog mentally checks out.

If this happens, try this

- If the dog looks lost, make the behavior smaller and easier.
- If the dog loses interest, shorten the session and use better rewards.
- If timing feels messy, practice your marker-and-treat delivery without the dog first.

7 Ready to progress?

- ☐ I know exactly what behavior I am rewarding.
- ☐ My marker happens at the right moment.
- ☐ My dog succeeds more than they struggles.
- ☐ I know how to make the next rep easier.

HOMEWORK

Run three 3-minute sessions this week. Pick one behavior, use one marker, and write down what changed when your timing got cleaner.
