Premium practice worksheet

EVERY DAY OBEDIENCE - LESSON 09

Teach your dog where to settle.

Use this worksheet to teach the dog to go to a mat or bed, relax there, and stay connected while life happens around them.

TRAINER NOTE

Place is most useful when it becomes a calm habit, not just a positional trick.

START HERE

Date: _____

Owner: _____

1 What success looks like

By the end of this lesson, the dog can go to the place target, stay there briefly, and begin relaxing with reinforcement.

2 Practice plan

1

Value the mat

Reward stepping on the target and choosing to stay there.

2

Add calm duration

Reinforce relaxed body language, not just getting there quickly.

3

Name the behavior

Add the cue once the dog understands the pattern.

4

Use it for life

Practice with meals, guests, work calls, or quiet household movement.

Place Training

6 Common mistakes and quick fixes

Common mistakes

- Using place only when the dog is already over threshold.
- Waiting too long and letting the dog self-release.
- Skipping reinforcement for relaxed body language.
- Moving the mat into hard situations too early.

If this happens, try this

- If your dog hops off, reward more often while they are on the mat.
- If your dog only sits upright, pay for any softening or down behavior.
- If guests make it hard, add distance and simplify the setup.

7 Ready to progress?

- ☐ My dog understands where place is.
- ☐ I reward duration and calmness.
- ☐ The release cue is clear.
- ☐ I know one real-life use for place this week.

HOMEWORK

Use place for three short real-life moments this week - meals, guest arrivals, or work calls. Note how long your dog stayed successful.
