EVERY DAY OBEDIENCE - LESSON 06

Make coming when called worth it.

This worksheet helps owners build a happy, reliable recall through easy wins and strong reinforcement.

1 What success looks like

By the end of this lesson, the dog responds quickly to the recall cue in easy environments and expects good things when they arrive.

2 Practice plan

1

Create easy wins

Call from short distances when your dog is already likely to come.

2

Reward arrival

Pay generously when your dog gets to you.

3

Release back to fun

Sometimes let the dog return to sniffing or playing after coming.

4

Add difficulty slowly

Practice around mild distractions only after the easy version is strong.

Recall

6 Common mistakes and quick fixes

Common mistakes

- Calling for unpleasant things every time.
- Repeating the cue many times.
- Testing recall in hard spaces too soon.
- Using weak rewards for hard choices.

If this happens, try this

- If your dog is slow, shorten distance and upgrade the reward.
- If your dog ignores the cue outside, go back indoors or use a long line.
- If your dog comes halfway, move away and reward heavily when they finish.

7 Ready to progress?

- ☐ My dog is happy to respond to the cue.
- ☐ I reward strongly at arrival.
- ☐ I use safety management outdoors.
- ☐ I know which environments are still too hard.

HOMEWORK

Practice 5 to 10 recall reps in easy settings on four different days. Include at least one recall-and-release-back-to-fun session.
