EVERY DAY OBEDIENCE - LESSON 04

Build clean positions without pushing.

This worksheet helps owners teach sit, down, and stand with clear cues, comfortable movement, and fair progression.

1 What success looks like

By the end of this lesson, the dog can move into sit, down, and stand with minimal help in a low-distraction environment.

2 Practice plan

1

Guide the motion

Use a treat lure or hand target to help your dog find the position.

2

Mark the finish

Mark as soon as the position is complete.

3

Fade the lure

Make your hand motion smaller so the dog does more thinking.

4

Add the cue

Say the verbal cue once the movement pattern is clear.

6 Common mistakes and quick fixes

Common mistakes

- Adding the verbal cue too early.
- Keeping food in the hand forever.
- Practicing on slippery flooring.
- Drilling until the dog gets slow or frustrated.

If this happens, try this

- If down is hard, try softer flooring and reward smaller pieces.
- If stand is confusing, reward still back feet and small weight shifts.
- If your dog pops up, reward earlier and reduce duration.

7 Ready to progress?

- ☐ My dog can do each position with minimal help.
- ☐ I am fading the lure gradually.
- ☐ I mark the finished behavior clearly.
- ☐ I know which position needs more practice.

HOMEWORK

Practice three mini-sessions this week. Focus on the weakest position first and track which cue or hand signal worked best.
